

We support you in applying for social security certificates (A1 certificates) and EU declarations

Book a hotel, secure a flight ticket and off you go - business trips to EU/EFTA countries are no longer that simple. In order to avoid wage dumping and discrimination against domestic workers, the Posting of Workers Directive 96/71/EC has been tightened up. The EU/EFTA states have enacted corresponding national laws.

Our partner, the 'Deutsche Visa und Konsular Gesellschaft (DVKG)', has revised the application processes for social security certificates (A1 certificate) and EU migrant permits in the interest of its customers by using technologically modern and cost-efficient advanced solutions. DVKG is an expert in taking over your administrative processes in the field of consular services.
